W O M ACTIVITIES

The WOM Group is planning a new Bible study. This study will be "Esther" by Beth Moore and is set to start on February 7th.

We are thinking about a Sunday group
and a Thursday group.
Let Crystal Dula know
if you are interested and which group would be best for you.

Our next WOM Meeting will be Sunday, January 24 at 12 noon immediately after Church.

PASTOR'S NOTES

As I write this the final figures for our financial year are being prepared. A specific accounting will be in next week's News and Views. We can report that while we fell around ½% short of our budget goal, we managed our budget spending so that we finished the year in the positive column. Once again, God has blessed us and the faithfulness of the church has been shown. Many positive things have happened as we have faced the economic challenges of our time. We know that all this has happened by God's grace poured out upon us.

On Sunday night, January 24, our Baptist Men will sponsor another athletic banquet. The men's and women's basketball teams from Hibriten and West Caldwell have been invited to be our guests. Our meal will be catered by the Daniel Boone Inn.

We have Coach Buzz Peterson from A.S.U. to be our speaker. Several men from our church will be sharing through prayers and testimony.

Our first banquet in the fall was well received by the schools and those who attended. You may secure a ticket through one of the men who will have them available on Wednesday nights and Sunday mornings or by calling the church office.

THE CALDWELL BAPTIST ASSOCIATION, INC. NEWSLETTER

Our Baptist Association now has its by-monthly newsletter on line. The newsletter will now become a quarterly publication which will start with the January-March 2010 issue. The Association's website is:

caldwellbaptist.org.
The newsletter will still be delivered to the churches in bulk on a quarterly basis for distribution. On occasion there may be limited room for community announcements in this publication.

Also beginning in January 2010, the Association will provide a monthly electronic newsletter known as the e-Caller. There will be room for expanded news on this e-mail. If you would like to have your name added to the e-Caller newsletter list please send your email address to Darlene at dtown-sendcba@charter.net and she will be happy to send the newsletter to you each month. (In your request to be put on the e-mail list do not hyphenate the word "townsend".)

IN OUR LIBRARY

Heaven by Randy Alcorn

Do you have questions about heaven? Then this is the book for you.

Quoting from the jacket blurb - "We all need to know what awaits us beyond the grave. Drawing from God's Word, Randy Alcorn has explained and carefully illustrated these plans in an easy to follow format." The book is divided into 3 parts: A Theology of Heaven, Questions and Answers About Heaven, and Living in the Light of Heaven. We definitely won't be floating around on a cloud looking bored. Heaven is a real and exciting place.

Note: The library also has Heaven for Kids by the same author. This is an adaptation of the adult book. Alcorn frequently uses incidents from C.S. Lewis' Narnia series to make a point.

Please do check out our Library. We have some excellent material for your reading pleasure. We are open on Sunday mornings for your convenience from 9:30 until 10:00 a.m.

Should you take out a book when no librarian is available, please put on the card the due date for return of the book (2 weeks from date of take out).
