The Prelude

*The Call to Worship

The Leader: Today feels new, like the beginning of something fresh. Why have we gathered today?

The People: To begin this new year by worshipping God who gives us life and life abundant.

The Leader: We came to affirm God's love.

The People: God has sent us His love in the form of a baby whose birth we have just celebrated.

The Leader: And so we gather to worship the God who comes to us in Christ,

The People: and to celebrate the new beginnings and freshness each day can bring through Christ.

The Leader: Then let us lift our voices in praise to the God of love who calls us to Him this morning to begin again.

The People: Let us begin this new year with praise.
